

Vanessa Cox-Logan

Business Owner, Community Leader,
Grass Roots Organizer, Case Worker,
Substance Abuse Counselor in Training and Business Adviser.

Vanessa Cox-Logan is the Co-owner of ALLN1 LLC and Novelty Documents. Under her leadership her children are partners in the Family business ALLN1. ALLN1 is the Parent company to Karma Kreationz, WildFlms, Betta B's and Trixie Lashes. Vanessa is a hard-working woman within her family and community. Vanessa is the Secretary for the United Youth Adult Conference and has been in that roll for the past 15 years. She also is the resource and community manager for Northwest Youth Power Inc. She is also a case worker with the Atlanta Furniture Bank. Vanessa works with the Georgia Addiction Counselor Association and works as a PA (Personal Assistant) to several social and political influencers. Vanessa belongs to the Samuel Chapter 92 order of Eastern Stars where she serve as the Conductrices. She is a member of the NAACP Chapter in Atlanta Georgia, and She is Founder of Queens supporter of the Black Man's Lab and a member of New Hop Missionary Baptist Church.

Vanessa was education in the Bartow County School system where she graduated with a college preparatory diploma. She went to Medix School of medicine and earned Certificate in Medical Assisting and Phlebotomy. She later went back to school and received training in spinal cord injuries and open her own nursing company that specialize in flying with spinal cord injuries intra United States. She also attended Atlanta Metropolitan College and received an associate degree in Political Science and then went on to Georgia State College with a Pending Degree in Sociology.

Years of nursing took its tool and Vanessa went to Atlanta Metropolitan College where she studies Political Science and earned her degree. She worked in the Mayor's Office of Community Affair under Mayor Bill Campbell's Administration for 7 years. She went on to work at the Georgia State Capital in the House of Representative as State Representative Douglas C. Dean for over 12 years. Vanessa then went on to work with the Atlanta Public School System as an Administrator over the 21 Century Community Grant with a 1 million dollar a year budget and a staff of 12 employee's that included teacher, police resource officer, school social workers, community volunteers and custodial staff. After 4 years of the services in Atlanta Public School Vanessa was ask to come work with the City of Atlanta Parks and Recreation Department where a position was created for her as the only Community Advocate Resource Manager on behalf of the entire department. She worked in recreation for eight years and resign to do what she loves best to serve her family and her community. Vanessa has been a pillar in the community who continues to fight the good fight. In the words of the late Senator John Lewis, " See a Good fight and get in it!"

Vanessa's live by the words of Martin Luther King Jr., " The measure of a man is not were he stands in comfort but where he stands in adversity."